

Eryngium 'Jade Frost'

BLOOM LEAF:

- Amethyst flower heads
- Grey leaves with cream edges

SIZE:

- 0.8m H x 0.4m S
- Upright

USE:

- Garden border
- Patio container

Name:	Sea Holly
Full Name:	Eryngium x tripartitum 'Jade Frost' PBR
Flower:	Amethyst flower heads starting cream and mature blue from June to November
Leaf:	Grey leaves with cream edges and pink flushes in the autumn, evergreen
Mature Size:	0.80m H x 0.40m S/Upright
Preferred Location:	Garden border/Patio container
Likes:	Full sun or partial shade/well drained, not too rich soil
Dislikes:	Water logged soil and temperatures below -15°C
Grown in:	Ireland

Eryngium 'Jade Frost' is an evergreen, most stunning perennial which thrives in hot summers. With its grey and cream variegated leaves and its amethyst blue flowers which stay attractive for a very long period this plants is a highlight in your garden or patio container.

